Dear Friends,

What does the month of November mean to you? Clare and I were staying with a friend in Sheffield a couple of years ago and, over a bacon sandwich on the Saturday morning of our 24 hours together, he outlined beautifully how the transition from October into November makes him feel spiritually somewhat autumnal. There's much looking to the past and remembering as we move through what is sometimes known as Allhallowtide with All Hallows' Eve (Hallowe'en) on the 31st October, then All Saints Day (1st Nov) and All Souls' on the 2nd. Then, just a few days further into November our thoughts turn to those who have given their lives in war as we gather at cenotaphs and lay wreaths for Remembrance with poppies pinned to our lapels.

I confess to being a little taken aback by the depth of feeling with which our friend explained how November, for him, is a time to slow down and to ponder one's mortality in light of all of this remembrance. But I'm hoping to follow his example and I'll try to spend some time intentionally slowing down; matching the behaviour of the trees, and nature more generally, as all begin to settle into winter ways and store up reserves for the season that lies ahead.

I've mentioned before in Church at Remembrance my interest in the etymology of the word 'remember'. To re-member is to put back together. If we are all 'clay jars' as Paul puts it so beautifully in 2 Corinthians 4, then our pausing in November to remember might just go some way towards putting ourselves back together. Whether it's by lighting a candle for someone we love but see no longer around All Souls or in that most poignant silence after the notes of the bugler drift off in the chilly breeze Armistice Day morning, I pray that this will be a time when we might remember others and, through doing so, remember ourselves.

The image above is of kintsugi the Japanese art of repairing (putting back together, or remembering) broken pottery with gold, silver or platinum.

This month's poem by Elizabeth Jennings gathers up in just 14 lines of the sonnet's form a little of the sense of what my friend was perhaps saying about November.

God bless,
Matthew

‘November Sonnet’ by Elizabeth Jennings

Spirit of place. Spirit of time. Re-form
The rugged oaks and chestnuts. Now they stand
Naked and pallid giants out of storm
And out of sorts. It is the Autumn’s end

And this is Winter brought in by All Saints
Fast followed by All Souls to keep us in Touch with chill and death. Each re-acquaints
Us with the year’s end. Yet we now begin

A life or realism, watching out
For a red sunset, grateful for a dawn
Of rich light now. Tall shadows step and strut

Facing the big wind daily coming on
Faster. This is the season of right doubt
While that elected child waits to be born.

Christmas Greetings

The December issue of the Burnsall News will carry the annual Christmas Greetings. The idea of these greetings was started a few years ago to raise money and has been used for the last few years to provide funding for the publication of the magazine itself. It also is a green thing as it stops locals having to use dozens and dozens of Christmas Cards and envelopes. Also, it saves us all some time. You can make a donation asap to Ed or Brenda (Cheques made payable to St. Wilfrid's PCC). BACs details Account name PCC Burnsall; Sort code 20 78 42; Acc No 10688789

November 29th Advent Sunday

As November closes, Advent begins. The exact birth-date of Jesus is not known, but during the 5th century the date of 25 December was chosen to become the Feast of the Nativity, or Christmas.
By the sixth century, the Christian Church was in the habit of spending several weeks leading up to Christmas in prayerful, expectant preparation. The fourth Sunday before Christmas Day became Advent Sunday. 'Advent', of course, means 'coming', or 'coming in', and traditionally special candles have been lit, and more recently, advent calendars used, as the Church prepares itself for the coming of the Holy Child, the long-awaited Messiah.
St. John's, Appletreewick is the place to be on Advent Sunday where at 6pm there will be the annual service of Advent Carols and Readings.
After the service the congregation will retire to the New Inn for seasonal refreshments.

Burnsall Village Hall

We are continuing to hold Coffee Mornings on the 2nd Wednesday of each month from 10am to 12noon.
There is no charge, this is just an opportunity for people to meet and have a chat over a coffee.
December 9th will include a special visit by the children from Burnsall School who will sing carols for us.
It seems fitting at this time to also thank Lynn, Yvonne and Brenda who between them provide a superb morning for many of us to enjoy a good natter.

St. Wilfrid's Quiz

A fun night was enjoyed by a packed village hall. Over £500 was raised. The winning team was "Debbie does Dorset". Many thanks to quizmaster Matthew and also to Brenda and team for organising.

Christian Aid Coffee Morning

The Coffee Morning raised £689.91. The organisers would like to thank everyone who supported the event.

8th November – Remembrance Sunday

In late 1914, WW1 erupted across Northern France and Flanders. Great swathes of previously green fields and forests were blasted and bombed, leaving them bleak and barren, with seemingly every living thing destroyed.

But then in the Spring of 1915, something beautiful began to come out of all the destruction. Tens of thousands of bright red Flanders poppies began to put out tentative shoots across the endless vistas of mud. These resilient little flowers had actually flourished in the middle of so much chaos and destruction, because their seeds grow when exposed to sunlight, through disturbances to soil.

We all know that these endless fields of cheerful poppies, growing in the midst of such misery and destruction, were what inspired the Canadian doctor, Lieutenant Colonel John McCrae, to write the now famous poem 'In Flanders Fields'.

And it was McCrae's poem which inspired an American academic named Moina Michael to adopt the poppy in memory of those who had fallen in the war. She got it adopted as an official symbol of Remembrance across the United States, and worked with others who were trying to do the same in Canada, Australia, and the UK.

A French woman, Anna Guérin who was in the UK in 1921, caught the same vision, and planned to sell the poppies in London. There she met Earl Haig, the founder of the Royal British Legion, who was persuaded to adopt the poppy as its emblem in the UK.

The Royal British Legion, which had been formed in 1921, ordered nine million poppies and sold them on 11 November that year. Ever since then, the red poppy has been a symbol of Remembrance, of support for the Armed Forces community, and also of hope for a peaceful future.

SKIPTON FOOD BANK HARVEST THANK YOU!

Over the financial year 25/26 in the Craven area we have given out 1044 emergency food parcels feeding 2053 individuals including 691 children.
We would not be able to do this without the help of local people and organisations who donate food to us including yourselves.
We meet people in all sorts of situations referred to us by local support organisations. People experiencing ill health, unemployment, family bereavement, relationship breakdown, they are struggling with housing costs and bills. People are amazed at the generosity of our food parcels which really help them and encourage them to keep going.

Holisitic Advice

As well as food for the last 3 years we have also been offering those collecting a food parcel access to a trained advisor from North Yorkshire Citizens and Law Centre (NYCALC). We have also continued to offer people access to face to face debt help from Christians Against Poverty (CAP). We are really pleased with the results-see graphic below. Due to financial support from local people, businesses and a grant from North Yorkshire Council we are pleased to be able to continue to have an advisor from NYCALC in the food bank into 2027.

Buildings

We are still receiving donations Mon, Weds, Fri mornings at St Andrews Church Hall on Newmarket Street in Skipton. The new owners-Christ Harvest Church are busy renovating around us.

Christmas

We will soon be collecting food for our special Christmas parcels. See our website for more details.

We want to thank our current supporters who give us food and money to keep the food bank functioning week by week.

THWAITES RAISES THOUSANDS FOR MACMILLAN

A fantastic collaborative effort across the Thwaites estate.

At Thwaites, we are passionate about supporting good causes, and Macmillan Cancer Support is a charity that holds a special place in many of our hearts.

For me personally, Macmillan became especially important after I unexpectedly lost my father in 2020. During one of the most difficult periods of my life, the Macmillan team provided incredible support to both me and my family. Their dedication to helping people through challenging times is truly remarkable, which is why we are proud to play our part in supporting such an amazing charity.

Following the success of our Macmillan Coffee Morning at The Red Lion, Burnsall, last year, we decided to think bigger for 2026. As part of the Thwaites family, The Red Lion joined colleagues from across the country in a company-wide fundraising initiative.

In total, 23 Thwaites properties, including Head Office, hosted Macmillan Coffee Mornings throughout September in a fantastic collaborative effort to raise vital funds for the charity.

The support we received was nothing short of outstanding. A special thank you goes to Matthew Smith and the Macmillan team for their guidance and encouragement throughout the campaign. We would also like to thank the many local businesses that generously donated raffle prizes, everyone who baked for our cake stalls, and all those who attended our events and donated so generously.

Most importantly, thank you to every member of the Thwaites team who helped organise, promote and deliver these events. The enthusiasm and commitment shown across the business made this achievement possible, and I am incredibly proud of what we have accomplished together.

The success of this year's campaign demonstrates the power of communities coming together for a common cause, and we are delighted to have contributed to the vital work Macmillan continues to do for individuals and families affected by cancer.

We are still waiting for final results, but I can tell you The Red Lion raised £855.40 in cash and at least £200 in card payments making our total alone, over £1000.

Born For this Promotion Parish Magazines

'Born for this' is a musical, dramatic and artistic live work based on the last few days of Jesus life and in particular on the Stations of the Cross. It is made up of contemporary depictions of the stations, dramatic dialogue and music – some chorus, some solos along musical theatre lines.

To be brief, each Parish will receive by the beginning of Lent, a copy of this Deanery production, in digital format, to be used as you may wish – Holy week, Lent course, and there will be a public showing at the Arts Centre w/b 14th March (date tbc).

Now the interesting bit……the participants in the production will all be members of Skipton Deanery… i.e. YOU and your fellow parishioners! Readers will be drawn from our Parishes, and music will be recorded by anyone or everyone who wishes to take part via a very simple process used by many parishes to produce online services during Covid. Richard Reeday a local musical director with whom many of us have worked successfully in the past will be facilitating this. We will be holding a music workshop 2.00.- 5.00pm in Cracoe Village Hall on Nov 14th. It would be helpful but not essential to attend.

Please spread far and wide…and…do consider taking part yourselves.

Remembrance Sunday 8th November
We will be holding our annual Act of Remembrance in November. This year, as well as remembering the fallen from this parish we will also be remembering Robert Fort's uncle.

John Fort DFC
John Fort, known as Jack, my uncle, was born in Colne, Lancashire, on 14th January 1912, one of the six sons of George and Martha Fort.
He joined the RAF in 1929 as a 17-year old apprentice at the No. 1 School of Technical Training at RAF Halton in Buckinghamshire. On qualification, he won first prize as a fitter. He then went to sea on the aircraft carrier HMS Glorious and continued as groundcrew until 1940, when he volunteered for aircrew training, and was selected as a specialist bomb aimer. At the end of his course, John was promoted to Pilot Officer and transferred to No.10 OTU at RAF St Eval in September 1942. 6 months later, in February 1943, he was posted to 97 Pathfinder Squadron at RAF Coningsby and joined a crew led by Flt Lt David Maltby. As a career RAF serviceman, John was now 31 and considerably older than the rest of the crew – all young men in their 20s.

After a month at Coningsby, Maltby and his crew were posted to 617 Sqn at RAF Scampton on 25 March 1943. 617 Squadron was a brand new elite group, formed in great secrecy under the leadership of Wing Commander Guy Gibson, with members specially selected to undertake one of the most daring raids of the war – the Dambusters raid to destroy three dams in Germany's industrial heartland of the Ruhr valley. John Fort was one of the most proficient bomb aimers in 617 Sqn and was the 'A' Flight Bombing Leader. It was perhaps therefore fitting that, as the fifth plane to attack the Mohne Dam, it was the precision of John Fort's bouncing bomb that broke the dam wall. For this he was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross.

4 months after the Dams raid, on 14th September 1943, David Maltby's Lancaster took off from RAF Coningsby to attack the Dortmund-Ems canal in northern Germany. They never returned. The plane crashed in the North Sea in unknown circumstances, although most evidence points to a collision with an RAF Mosquito patrolling the coast.
David Maltby's body was the only one to be recovered – John Fort and the rest of the crew are among the over 20,000 names with no known burial site commemorated at the Air Forces Runnymede memorial in Surrey. He is also commemorated on the war memorial in Colne.
